

ABOUT THE PROJECT

Green skills for sustainable tourism (G4T) aims to eliminate the gap between the knowledge needed for the ecological transition in the tourism sector and the skills offered by the knowledge acquired in the job market. The project has a duration of 24 months and its main target groups are mainly people with a tourist qualification that never entered the job market or lost their job and NEETs.

LEARN MORE

<https://green4tourism.eu>

<https://www.facebook.com/people/G4T-Green-skills-for-future-tourism/100088197034849/>

G4T - GREEN SKILLS FOR SUSTAINABLE TOURISM

2021-1-IT01-KA220-VET-000029943

PROJECT OBJECTIVES

01 Obtain more interest on green jobs

02 Promote the valorisation of territories and communities

03 Increasing the quality and relevance of training activities

04 Promote cooperation in the sustainable sector field

PROJECT RESULTS

Raise awareness about sustainability and on self-employment

Acquire competences on green services and solutions design

Spread informations about the opportunities offered by CVET courses

Overcome the barriers to enter education and training system

Help CVET organizations with the development of innovative curricula

Gained knowledge on micro-credentials approach

Share best practices on sustainable tourism

PARTNERS

- EBA: from Portugal
- EUROPROODOS EDUCATIONAL GROUP SINGLE MEMBER PRIVATE COMPANY: from Greece
- Ecosystem Europe Association: from Bulgaria
- Dolnoslaska Federacja Organizacji Pozarządowych: from Poland
- Nida culture and tourism information centre "Agila": from Lithuania
- IFOM: from Italy